

Janet Hart's SPAA Biography

Janet Hart was born in Atlanta, Georgia and grew up in Chicago, Illinois. A graduate from Governors State University in University Park, Illinois; she spent eighteen years working in the Financial Services & Comptroller's Offices.

As a mother of two beautiful daughters and a former military spouse for twenty-eight years. Janet balanced her family life with her career while changing professions due to relocations along the way. She has a background in Banking, Finance and Customer Service. She volunteered for a variety of military organizations and those experiences, contributes to her organizational skills, dependability, trustworthiness, patience and love for others.

She enjoys writing, jazz music, sporting events, plays, concerts, and inspiring others with words of encouragement.

Janet is currently a retiree living outside of Chicago, Illinois where she aspires to become a writer and published author.